

Hello Chicago Red Eleven Fans!

Our season is fast approaching--1st Home match is Wednesday, May 27th and our exhibition match vs. our professional affiliate Chicago Red Stars is Saturday, May 30th.

More information, including ticket pricing/ordering and roster updates, is available at <http://www.chicagoredeleven.com/index.html>.

And now--the "Top 10" reasons to come to Benedictine University in Lisle and see the Red Eleven play this summer:

Top 10 Reasons to Attend Red Eleven Matches this summer:

10. Home field Benedictine University in Lisle: close, comfortable, and convenient!
9. Affordable! 6 & under free, cheaper than bringing the family to the movies!
8. Outstanding coaching! Head Coach Tony Anglin was W-League "Coach of the Year" in 2008 with Atlanta Silverbacks.
7. International Flair! Our roster includes National Team Players from Japan, Mexico, England, Sweden, and Canada.
6. Accessible Role Models! Autograph sessions after each home game featuring players from schools like Harvard, Notre Dame, Illinois, Marquette and Michigan!
5. W-League Advantage! USL's W-League is the first and longest-standing women's competitive league in North America, featuring 37 teams nationally
4. Helping provide a bridge to the pros! We are the official amateur affiliate of the Professional Chicago Red Stars! Your support of our program will help many talented female players realize their dream of becoming a pro athlete!
3. Community Involvement! Our girls are working hard to make contact with the local youth clubs, offering free skills demonstrations and promoting a "love of the game" among the young players in the area.
2. Support to the community's local college athletes! Our program will provide professional training and highly competitive league play for the area's top college players each summer, allowing our local players to build upon already successful playing careers.

1. FUN!! Red Eleven home games will be great entertainment for the whole family!

Thanks and see you at Benedictine!

Ted Gradel
Owner/GM
Chicago Red Eleven
ted@chicagoredeleven.com
www.chicagoredeleven.com